Exclusive accommodation for discerning guests

'Hargate Guesthouse' offers discerning guests exquisite luxury accommodation in a significant National Trust Listed Queen Anne Federation home.

Built between 1900 and 1903 as a private home, 'Hargate' has remained a landmark building in Launceston. Featuring superb Louis period French antiques in every room, marble fireplaces, beautifully appointed neo classical bathrooms with heated floors and 24 carat gold tapware, chandeliers and fine architectural features, 'Hargate' redefines the grandeur and ambience of a time gone by.

'Hargates' valued guests will enjoy a high standard of personalised service, luxurious linen, a pillow menu, sumptuous silver service breakfasts, open fireplaces and special 'Hargate Highlights' during their stay. Breathtaking views of Launceston from every guest room, business support facilities including wi-fi and a central position add to the pleasure and convenience of staying at 'Hargate Guesthouse

'Hargate Guesthouse' is only 10 minutes walk away from numerous Launceston attractions including historic City Park, the neo classical Princes Square, Boag's Brewery, the Design Centre of Tasmania, exquisite multi-award winning restaurants and classy cafes. The Cataract Gorge, Seaport, King's Park and the Tamar River boardwalk are also nearby. 'Hargate Guesthouse' is your ultimate luxury boutique accommodation destination in Launceston - 'time will pass, the memories won't'.
